

ABOUT US

What makes us so unique?

In the day and age when most businesses trade quality for speed, we've chosen a different route, bypassing technology and making bagels the old-fashioned way—by hand. We still mix our dough slowly, roll bagels out individually, boil them in a 60-gallon vat of water, and bake them on stone shelves. This is a real, traditional New York-style bagel.

What you get.

Here, we pride ourselves on three things:

- Providing you with a huge selection of delicious, artisan-quality food
- Creating a unique atmosphere that keeps you coming back for more
- Maintaining the same incredible standards we've had since we opened our doors in September 1982

What you'll see.

Organized chaos. Hard workers. Passionate customers. Spontaneous social gatherings. People eating food they absolutely love.

OUR STORY

It all started with a weekend trip and a love of DC. It was the early '80s, and my wife, who was working a conference at the Washington Hilton, asked me to come down for the weekend. Exhausted from the 14- to 16-hour days I'd been working in NYC real estate, I happily jumped at the chance.

See, we've both always loved the DMV area. And during what shaped up to be a wonderful trip, we happened upon our old friend, Eddie. A chance conversation led him to mention that DC's bagel situation was sorely lacking—and a light bulb went off in my head.

The rest is history.

We went back to New York and persuaded famed New York bagel maker Manny Strugach to let us apprentice in his shop before and after work. Then, when we were ready, we opened our Bethesda location and have spent the last 30 years fighting our way into the hearts, homes and offices of the wonderful people in the DC area. Which brings us to today, where we proudly serve you a taste of our life's work.

We hope you love it every bit as much as we do!
